seaSpa Massage

Blue Wave Massage

This signature seaSpa designed massage aims at reducing body stress and tension while simultaneously using unique massage techniques to remove harmful toxins from the body's system.

This Thai legendary massage descended from generations of the Thai Royal family which reduce stress and relieve muscle soreness, release energy blockage and harmonize the body.

Royal Thai Herbal Heat

A soothing treatment to alleviate pain and soothe sore muscles. Start with a Royal Thai Massage and then a heated packet of traditional Thai herbs will be administered onto your body, allowing the medicinal heat to soothe muscle aches and induce relaxation.

Detox Massage

An ideal complement to the detoxification program, this massage applies a medically proven technique that stimulates the movement of lymphatic flows, thereby detoxifying and removing toxins from the body.

Firming Massage

A medically proven firming massage using unique Thai herbs and essential oils. The synergy of the herbs' potency and special firming massage technique helps reduce local fat deposits and allows achieving the ideal body contour.

seaSpa Detox

Detox Treatment

An efficient way of detoxification that safely removes toxin debris from your digestive system, and restores its function and regularity. This treatment is closely monitored by a registered nurse.

Total Body Detox

This is a half-day total body detoxification program which begins with a colonic detox treatment, followed by a seaweed body scrub, and ends with detox massage. The synergy of these three treatments help remove toxins from every system of your body.

3-D Detox Program

This three-day detoxification program is suitable for those who, by necessity, eat an excess of processed food, have allergy problems or are exposed to extensive pollution. This 3-day program is very helpful for detoxifying and revitalizing the whole body. (Please contact us for details)
